

undercover

Undercover is a musical group hailing from beautiful Vancouver BC. Comprised of four individual, highly skillfully and talented musicians, Undercover expertly delivers a wide range of music hits - uncovering hidden gems across all decades. Undercover's two powerful vocalists and grooving rhythm section guarantee a packed dance floor throughout the night! Undercover has been pleased to play for many fantastic clients and venues, including the False Creek Yacht Club where they perform on a regular basis.

BAND MEMBERS

LJ Mounteney - Lead/Backing Vocals, Keys

With a dynamic voice and engaging personality, LJ's high energy performances and perfectly pitched vocals have been winning her legions of fans among music lovers and musicians alike. Her impressive repertoire stems from her love of jazz, blues, pop, R&B, and big band swing era music. A busy working musician, she not only leads Undercover but appears in several other projects including her trio show Singers and Stringers and with Van Django at Christmas. LJ is currently working with Jon Roper, for a new album of original blues in 2020.

Nathen Aswell - Stick, Lead and Backing Vocals

Nathen Aswell is a multi-talented musician excelling in several instruments (bass, electric upright bass, Chapman Stick, NS Stick) as well as being a top notch vocalist. His soulful vocals and playing have enabled him to tour internationally as both leader and sideman and he keeps busy in several groups in Vancouver - Undercover, The Wilds , and as the new lead vocalist (alongside Joani Bye) in The R&B Allstars.

Daryl Jahnke - Electric guitar

Daryl Jahnke is one of Vancouver's finest guitarists, having performed and toured across Japan, the UK, USA, and Cuba with several notable jazz musicians. Daryl's eclectic and versatile approach to his playing, and deep passion about how listeners connect to that playing, results in spontaneity and beautifully crafted improvised moments. Daryl is a sought after teacher and mentor heading up the guitar department at VCC since 2012.

Shawn Soucy - Drums and Backing vocals

Shawn Soucy is a master of rhythm and groove having appeared on hundreds of music sessions for albums, jingles, stand-ins and music videos resulting in being named Drummer of the Year multiple times by both the BCCMA and CMMA. Additionally, Shawn is a fine singer providing the vocal icing on the cake with his background vocals. Shawn works locally with many local notable artists including Billy Dixon and Taylor James.
